1. General information

National Agency for Equal Opportunities between Women and Men (NAEO), as Project Promoter of the pre-defined project "Support for the implementation of the Istanbul Convention in Romania", financed by the Norwegian Financial Mechanism 2014-2021, under the "Justice" Programme, coordinated by the Romanian Ministry of Justice, as Programme Operator, launches the procedure for the selection of an international expert for external evaluation of the Romanian institutional capacity to implement national policies on domestic violence and gender based violence.

"Support for the implementation of the Istanbul Convention in Romania" is a strategic action meant to support the Romanian authorities to adopt a coordinated approach in addressing the challenges raised by the of implementation of the Istanbul Convention, that Romania ratified in 2016.

One objective of the project is to evaluate the capacity of the Romanian authorities to implement the Istanbul Convention and institutional capacity regarding the implementation of the public policies and specific laws.

The Evaluation Group will assess the capacity of the Romanian authorities to implement the Istanbul Convention and the institutional capacity of NAEO in terms of attributions towards the implementation of public policies and of specific laws and its role as a national mechanism ensuring the methodological coordination of the authorities' local government and various bodies: the General Directorates for Social Assistance and Child Protection (47 GDSACP), the Inter-ministerial Committee for the Prevention and Combating Domestic Violence, the National Commission for Equal Opportunities for Women and Men, the County Commissions for Equal Opportunities for Women and Men (42 CCEO). The evaluation report will contain recommendations for strengthening the institutional capacity of the Romanian institutions and for improving its workflows with the other institutions in the field, considering examples of best practices from other countries implementing the Istanbul Convention. The recommendations will be considered for the elaboration of future public policies (strategies, plans), development of projects, amendment of normative acts etc. The Evaluation Group will assess the capacity of the Romanian authorities to implement the Istanbul Convention and the institutional capacity of NAEO in terms of attributions towards the implementation of public policies and of specific laws and its role as a national
